A Word From The Locum

Kaye and I have been with you for a month. It has been a time of learning for all of us. We have slowly begun to learn your names and to understand the workings of the Swan Parish.

I am aware that the past has been painful for some in the Parish. The truth is we all carry the hurt of the years in our lives. In Christ we have the key to healing of our mind, body and soul.

You may have noticed my many references to the Two Great Commandments. As a sinner we are healed through Christ upon the Cross, and it is through Christ that our relationships are restored. We can truly love one another because of Him.

In this season of Lent we should seek forgiveness for our sins, not only against God but from our neighbour. Who do you need to make peace with?
